PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On March 28, 2008, at approximately 12:30 a.m., Border Patrol Agent J. Sanchez was performing line watch duties in the Otay Mountains within the Chula Vista Station Area of Responsibility. Agent Sanchez was alerted by San Diego Sector Communications, via Department of Homeland Security (DHS) service radio, of a seismic intrusion device activation in an area known to Border Patrol Agents as the "76 Firebreak." This area is located approximately four miles east of the Otay Mesa, California Port of Entry and approximately three miles north of the United States/Mexico International Boundary.

After arriving in the area, Agent Sanchez encountered four individuals. Agent Sanchez identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned each individual as to their citizenship and nationality. Each individual responded, "Mexico," including one later identified as the defendant Ricardo AVALOS. Agent Sanchez then asked each individual if they had any immigration documents that would allow them to be or remain in the United States legally. Each individual responded, "No." At approximately 1:00 a.m., Agent Sanchez placed the four individuals, including the defendant, under arrest and had them transported to the Chula Vista Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on March 20, 2008 through Nogales, Arizona. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

Executed on March 29, 2008 at 9:00 a.m.

Carlos R. Chavez
Senior Patrol Agent

On the basis of the facts presented in the probable cause statement consisting of 1 page(s), I find probable cause to believe that the defendant named in this probable cause statement committed the offense on March 27, 2008, in violation of Title 8, United States Code, Section 1326.
